2 International Events/JGP/ISU Championships

This year has been a rather light year for Australian skating. The very high cost of travel seems to have curtailed skaters traveling for events. Most skaters have been withdrawing from events this year. The end of the season with Thailand Open and Oceania nearby or in Australia look to be more heavily attended and results from Thailand Open have been included.

We have had a small number of skaters going to regional events like Asian Open in Thailand, Challenger Series event Denis Ten and Thailand Open.

3 Junior Grand Prix

There was a great deal of competition for the Women's JGP spots. Australia was assigned 3 spots for the Jr Women, 2 spots for the Jr Men, 2 spots for Jr Dance and 9 spots for the Jr Pairs.

For the first JGP of the season held in Bangkok, Thailand, Hana Bath was selected by the board for the women and finished 13th. Vinceman Chong was selected for the Men and finished 17th. In Dance Renee Yuen/Oliver Ma were selected for their first JGP event and finished 11th. For all these skaters it was their first time attending a JGP event.

For the third JGP event of the season Hana Bath was again selected by the board to compete in the Jr Women's category. She had a strong event and finished 6th overall in the event. Kryshtof Pradeaux was selected to attend the event and finished 23rd in this his first JGP event. Renee Yuen/Oliver Ma were selected for this event and finished 12th.

The next event was another JGP event where a newly formed pair team comprising Peyton Bellamy-Martins and Kryshtof Pradeaux they finished 14th in the event.

Luna Shimogaki was selected to represent Australia in the JGP in Gdansk this was her first JGP event. She finished 23rd.

At Shanghai Trophy we saw both Anastasiia and Hektor selected for the pairs event in which they finished 4th and Holly and Jason selected for the dance, they also finished 4th in the event.

4 International Events:

Even though several skaters had expressed interest in a variety of events in early October we had a lot of skaters withdraw. One of the few dance teams to make it to Europe for Trophée Metropole Nice Côte d'Azur was Yuen/Ma, competing in Jr Dance and finishing in 8th place at the event.

At the ISU GP Skate America in mid-October Holly and Jason competed in their first GP of the 2023-2024 event of the season. They finished 10th overall.

At the Swiss Ice Skating Open Yuen/Ma competed again in Jr Dance and finished 11th.

At another ISU GP event, Skate Canada Anastasiia and Hektor finished 4th in their first GP event of the 2023-2024 season.

At the Denis Ten CS event Maria Chernyshova finished 11th in the Sr Womens event. Tamara Abagi and Pauline Gorelik skated at the Jr level and finished 18th and 17th respectively. 3 skaters ventured to Riga for the Volvo Open 50th. With Charlton Doherty finishing 5th in the Sr Men, and Jr Women: Vlada Vasiliev (6th) and Simona Bhasin (21st) also competing in the event. This same group also competed at Denkova-Staviski Cup in Sofia. Charlton finished 6th in Sr Men, Vlada finished 11th in and Simona Bhasin finished 15th in the Jr Women's event.

Holly Harris and Jason Chan attended Golden Spin and finished 15th in Sr Dance.

Australia's newest dance team who currently train in Canada were given an opportunity to earn a 4 C's score. Romy Malcolm and Kobi Chant entered NRW Trophy finished 6th of 8 and just missing the score for the 2023-2024 season. Also at this event was Ashley Colliver who skated as a Sr Woman and finished 11th. Ashley went on to skate at Tallinn Trophy where she finished 12th but also earned her personal best scores at the Sr level.

The next event was the NHK Trophy where Anastasiia and Hektor finished 4th in the Sr Pairs event.

At the Bosphorus Cup in Istanbul we had Maria Chernyshova who skated a strong program and completed her 4 Continents minimum score. She finished 4th at this event. Also attending were India and Eron who finished 17th in the Sr Dance event.

Two dance teams attended Golden Spin CS: Holly/Jason finished 6th and India/Eron finished 17th.

At the Edusport Trophy we saw Victoria Alcantara compete in the Sr Women finishing 7th and sadly was not able to earn the 4 C Score for this season.

Julio Potapenko ventured out to Latvia Trophy finishing 6th and then to Volvo Open 51st where he finished 13th. Also, at Volvo Open 51st was Ann Kyle skating at the Interclub event at the AN level where she finished 6th.

Regina Ng and Dominick Mautner attended 2 events; the first being Espheus Cup in Turkey where they finished 9th, and Bavarian Open where they finished 12th. They did earn the Jr World FD score but missed the RD score.

5 Youth Olympic Games:

Australia fielded 2 pairs spots but had only 1 team that met the age requirements for the YOG. Peyton Bellamy-Martins/Kryshtof Pradeaux attended the YOG in South Korea and finished 4th.

Thanks to the strong skating of Hana Bath in the JGP Australia secured a spot for the women. Unfortunately, Hana was several months too young to meet the age criteria for the event. The spot was allotted to the highest ranked age eligible skater using the ISA ranking sheets. Sienna went on to finish 17th in the event.

6 ISU 4 Continents:

Australia was well represented at 4 Continents in Shanghai.

2 Women: Maria Chernyshova 21st

Vlada Vasiliev 26th

2 Men: Darian Kaptich 21st

Charton Doherty 26th

2 Dance Holly Harris/Jason Chan 9th

13 ISA ranking Sheets:

This document will show the rankings of all skaters competing in Basic Novice through Senior. The document will be updated in June, skaters who are not age eligible for international competition will be listed in red. Skaters who require a Clearance letter will have CL listed by their names. The rankings will be updated, and the 2022-2023 seasons scores will be removed so the rankings will change accordingly. Only skaters who have an international score and are age eligible may put in an EOI for International events. You can use either the international pool or the ISA rankings to determine your eligibility for international competition.
